

A. Leo and his family are in Amsterdam in the Netherlands. They are about to travel to the Hague by train. They are listening to the announcements at the Central Station. (18/100 @3)

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen. May I have your attention please: the intercity train service between Amsterdam and Utrecht is temporarily suspended owing to an obstruction on a key part of the track. Passengers going to Utrecht please consider using other modes of transport. There are special shuttle buses to connect passengers to the Central Bus Terminus every 10 minutes. Passengers please ask staff members for more information. We are trying our best to solve the problem and the train service will resume as soon as possible. We apologise for any inconvenience caused.

Train number IC 24 from Amsterdam to Rotterdam, originally scheduled to leave at 2:45 pm, will arrive at the Central Station 20 minutes late because of renovation work at the Schiphol Airport Station. We apologise for the inconvenience and we appreciate your patience.

Train number IC 34 from Amsterdam to the Hague, scheduled to leave at 3:05pm, is leaving on time in 10 minutes. Passengers going to the Hague please board the train at Platform 8. Thank you.

This is a special safety announcement. Passengers please take care of your personal belongings and never leave your luggage unattended. Any unattended luggage in the station will be removed without prior notice. Thank you.
