

Proofreading

Proofread the following passage.

Once upon a time, there is a girl called Alice. She lived in a poor village which only had a lot clean water.

One day, she found a mysterious seed in her way home after work. She brought it home happy and decided to grow it in great care. She believed that it can bring her good luck!

She water the plant with valuable water everyday. 'What a waste!' Much people thought Alice was silly and laughed with her.

Alice's parents shouted on the people and stopped them on saying more so this Alice would not be shameful.

Many years later, a fruit tree grew. Alive shared the fruits to all the villagers, including those who laughed at herself. Her parents was proud with her.
