I had a horrible nightmare.

In my dream, I was studying in a wizard school. The school is famous

(1) for its magic and transfiguration studies. I was interested

(2) in the subjects at first and I thought I was good

(3) at using the magic spells. With my excellent performance, a teacher gave me a magic wand which was made (4) of mysterious materials.

As a wizard, the wand was very important. It was used (5) to casting spells.

One night, my classmates and I had an exam. We were sent to an ancient empty castle and we had to use our magic power to get away (6) from the danger.

When we were inside the castle, it was very dark. We looked (7) for the switch but we couldn't find (8) it where it was.

Suddenly, we heard a loud noise. It was a giant dragon! We tried to fight

(9) with it but it was so strong. The dragon looked at me and I called

(10) for help. My heart was beating so quickly and I woke up. I found myself safely sitting in my bed.

The dream was just too scary!
