

Pronouns Exercise

A. Replace the nouns in parentheses with the correct pronoun (e.g. his, her, their, our, them, we).

1. They (Ivy and Peter) are getting married next month.
2. I'm going to Jim's house to get _____ (Jim's) coat.
3. The roses look beautiful in the garden. Don't pick _____ (the roses).
4. _____ (Moira's) chocolate cake is delicious.
5. Let's go to the store. _____ (You and I) need to get some vegetables.

B. Correct the following paragraph, using the proper pronouns.

Margo lay in bed listening. She had been listening to 6. her (Margo's) music but suddenly heard an ambulance blaring 7. _____ (the ambulance's) siren in the distance. It sounded like it was in such a rush. Margo was looking down and listening to 8. _____ (the cars and ambulance) noise from the window when 9. _____ (Margo's) mom yelled to hurry up. "Oh, 10. _____ (Margo and her parents) are in a rush, too!"

C. Use the possessive pronouns in the word box to replace the underlined sections. Then rewrite the sentences.

their his her theirs ours

11. Mr. Walter's business suit is blue with white pinstripes.

His business suit is blue with white pinstripes.

12. That laptop is my mom's and mine.

13. With all this money, Jake and Bill's new jobs are really paying off.

14. My sister's hair is blonde, but sometimes she dyes it red.

15. Those ice skates are Benjamin and Jimmy's, not mine.

