- Jeffrey : I would like to join the program of the youth center. Could you give me some information?
- Supervisor : Sure. First, look at the program. Do (1) _____ these courses interest you?
- Jeffrey : Yes, in fact I like (2) _____ them, so it is difficult to choose. I have (3) _____ no idea which one I want to join.
- Supervisor : Here are two which are favourites – ‘Taekwondo’ and ‘Backpacker’. (4) _____ them are very popular at the moment, and you could make lots of friends if you decide to join these courses.
- Jeffrey : I have (5) _____ experience in Taekwondo already. I’d like to try something new. So can you tell me more about the ‘Backpacker’?
- Supervisor : Students go on outings every weekend. The destination changes every week. So (6) _____ the trips are ever the same.
- Jeffrey : Are there (7) _____ requirements for this course?
- Supervisor : No, there are (8) _____ except your parents’ permission, of course.
- Jeffrey : Do parents normally say ‘yes’?
- Supervisor : That depends. (9) _____ them worry about their children going camping, but mostly they do think that it is both good exercise and a challenge for their children.
- Jeffrey : I think I’ll join this course, then.
- Supervisor : Great! Here is the application form. Please fill (10) _____ the blanks in.

B. Complete the story with the correct indefinite pronouns.

Jasmine was in her sitting room. It was her birthday, but 1.(someone / anyone / no one) else was with her—she was alone. She felt sad. ‘It’s my birthday and I haven’t got 2.(somewhere / anywhere / nowhere) to go,’ she said to herself.

Suddenly she heard 3.(something / anything / nothing) but she didn’t know what it was. She heard it again—It’s coming from 4.(somewhere / anywhere / nowhere) outside her flat. She opened the front door, but she didn’t see 5.(something / anything / nothing).

‘Is 6.(somebody / anybody / nobody) out there?’ she asked. 7.(Someone / Anyone / No one) answered. Then, finally, she heard a sound—8.(Someone / Anyone / No one) is laughing. Jasmine became angry. ‘Have you got 9.(something / anything / anyone) to say?’ she asked. ‘If you haven’t, then please stop bothering me!’ Jasmine went back inside and shut the door.

Then 10.(someone / anyone / something) began knocking on her door. ‘Jasmine! Jasmine! Open the door! It’s us! Jasmine opened the door and saw her friends Karin, Cindy and Eva. ‘We’re just playing a trick on you! Happy Birthday!’
