Rabbits are our favorite friends

Do you know rabbits? Do you think they eat carrots mainly? Are they all good-tempered? I can tell you the truth here.

My pet is called “Elephant” . He is a male lop-eared rabbit with grey and brown hair. He loves eating grass. He licks the one he loves. He can understand what you say but sometimes pretends not to hear anything from you especially when he thinks that you annoyed him much. He loves playing with me when he is in a good mood. He lies beside me. I feel relaxed as we can sleep well together on the ground. He enjoys eating treats like blueberries or carrots. When we call his name sometimes, he turns to us and sees if we are going to give him treats. However, we always remember the vets’ reminder that bunnies can only have treats like carrots for a bit in a week time.

You can try to find more information from Hong Kong Rabbit Society if you think bunnies are adorable and want to adopt an abandoned bunny. Take action and share your love with our lovely fluffy kids now.
