

Subject-verb agreement

A. Proofreading. Decide whether the sentences are correct or not. If there is a mistake, make appropriate corrections.

1. Either you or I are correct. _____
2. The price of flats are rising. _____
3. Each book have a unique ISBN. _____
4. Is aerobics popular among the young? _____
5. Ten years are indeed quite a long time. _____
6. Somebody is hiding behind the curtains. _____
7. Everybody enjoy visiting the Disneyland. _____
8. People living in the country is much healthier. _____
9. Neither red nor green are my favourite colour. _____
10. Baseball, as well as soccer, are popular in Japan. _____
11. Pound, rather than dollar, are the currency in the UK. _____
12. The disabled is also capable of taking care of themselves. _____
13. Paris, the capital of France and a famous tourist spot, are his birthplace. _____

B. Complete the sentences with a suitable verb provided below in singular or plural form using Simple Present Tense.

belong	use	come	live
work	cost	take	want
have	study	be	maintain

- How much _____ this bunch of flowers _____ ?
- An uncle of theirs _____ in the University of Hong Kong.
- Neither the ring nor the necklace _____ to me.
- Each country _____ a capital.
- Little Mermaid, as well as The Frog Prince, _____ a popular fairy tale.
- Growing trees often _____ ten years.
- The deaf _____ in a silent world.
- The police _____ social order.
- Nobody _____ to be lonely.
- The students in this school _____ from English-speaking families.
- The dumb _____ sign language to communicate with people.
- Christina, my cousin and my best friend, _____ Japanese in university.

