

A. Passive Voice

Rewrite the following sentences in the passive voice. Pay attention to the changes in verb tense, subject, and sentence structure. Choose the most appropriate form of the verb and don't forget to include the agent (if applicable).

1. The chef is preparing a delicious meal in the kitchen.

---

2. They have built a new bridge across the river.

---

3. The company will launch a new product next month.

---

4. The students are discussing the assignment with the professor.

---

5. She had already completed the report before the deadline.

---

6. People often use this road to reach the city center.

---

7. They awarded him the Nobel Prize for his groundbreaking research.

---

8. The mechanic is fixing my car in the garage.

---

9. The teacher explained the lesson to the students.

---

10. The storm had damaged many houses in the neighborhood.

---

B. Reported Speech

Rewrite the following sentences in reported speech, maintaining the meaning and using the appropriate reporting verb and reporting clause. Pay attention to any necessary changes in pronouns, tenses, and time expressions.

1. "I will visit my grandparents next weekend," said Sara.

---

2. "I have already finished my homework," said Tom.

---

3. "I saw a movie at the cinema yesterday," said Emily.

---

4. "I can swim across the lake," said Mark.

---

5. "I am going to start a new job next month," said Lisa.

---

6. "I met John at the party last night," said Mary.

---

7. "I have been studying Spanish for two years," said Robert.

---

8. "I will cook dinner for everyone tonight," said Sarah.

---

9. "I saw a shooting star last night," said Alex.

---

10. "I am planning a trip to Europe next summer," said Emma.

---

