The students are preparing for a school event. Read the passage below and answer the questions in COMPLETE SENTENCES. (12%@2%)

The students at Fung Wing Primary School were getting ready for a charity fair. Miss Lam's class was busy organizing everything in the playground.

Candy was a very imaginative student. She created some cards and toys to sell at the event and displayed them on a table in her stall. Clayton, who was a talented cook, prepared some baked goods to sell. He placed them neatly on plates before heading off to assist Miss Lam. Meanwhile, Mandy and Tina were practicing their dance recital on the stage, while David and a group of students were rehearsing a play. Mike was assisting at the game booth. "Is there anything I can do, Miss Lam?" Brian asked eagerly

Miss Lam handed Brian a stack of papers. "You can sell these raffle tickets. Anyone who buys one has a chance to win a prize," she explained. Just then, Cyrus came running into the playground. "Miss Lam!" he exclaimed. "I can't find the box of old books! I had it this morning, but now it's gone!"

"Think carefully," Miss Lam said calmly. "Where have you been today?" Cyrus paused to think. "I went to the art room to grab some paint. Then I stopped by the tuck shop for a snack. After that, I visited Mr. Chow's classroom to ask him something. Wait a second... Oh! I remember where it is now."

Eventually, Jason found the box of books. A group of students had already started reading them while enjoying their snacks. "Well, it looks like we've found a new spot for our bookstall!" Jason said with a smile. Miss Lam sighed and laughed, "Well, we have indeed! However, you have to be more careful next time!"
