

A. Jason is telling Macy about his uncle. Circle the correct articles.

I have 1.(a / an) uncle. His name is Jeremy.

Uncle Jeremy has 2.(a / an) elephant. It is big!

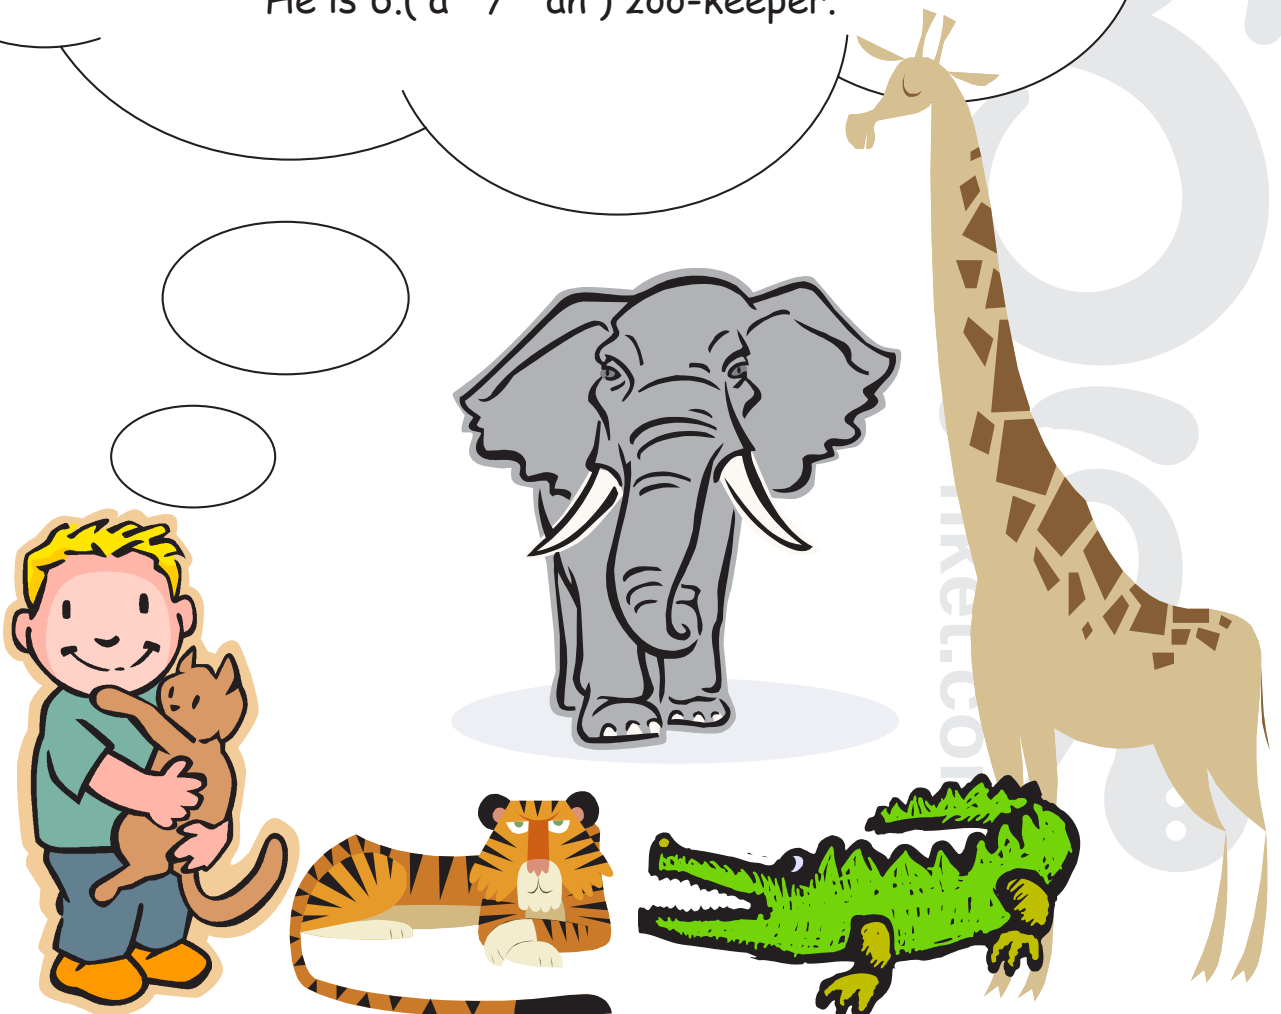

He has 3.(a / an) giraffe. It is very tall.

He has 4.(a / an) crocodile. It is fierce.

He has 5.(a / an) orange tiger too. It is strong.

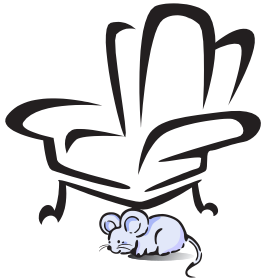

Uncle Jeremy loves animals.

He is 6.(a / an) zoo-keeper.

the

◆ We use 'the' to talk about something has been talked about before.

Macy: I can see a mouse!

Mum: Oh! The mouse is under my chair!

◆ We also use 'the' when it is clear that what we are referring to or when there is only one of the thing.

Don't walk on the grass in the park.

The sun is shining brightly in the sky.

B. This is Macy's bedroom. What can you see? Fill in the blanks with 'a', 'an' or 'the'.

There is a teddy bear,

1. _____ chair, 2. _____ umbrella

and 3. _____ bed in Macy's bedroom.

Where is 4. _____ teddy bear? It is under 5. _____ chair.

Where is 6. _____ umbrella? It is on 7. _____ chair.

Look! There is also 8. _____ doll. It is very pretty.

