

Transitive & Intransitive Verbs

A. Put a tick against the ones you think are correct sentences. Pick a cross against the ones you think are incorrect sentences and make corrections above the line.

e.g. I like apples

e.g. My octopus card is in the school bag. Let me take out.

My octopus card is in the school bag. Let me take it out.

1. Hello Kitty is very lovely and I like very much.

2. That is a big apple and I cannot finish.

3. The bus was late but we waited patiently in the rain.

4. Mum went to your school. Did you see?

5. These flowers have very strong scent. So I don't want.

B. Jenny and Jack are talking about their favourite TV programme during recess at school.
Complete the conversation with words from the box below.

him it fun it one it time it stick Kung Fu

Jenny: Are you watching any TV programmes at night lately?

Jack: Yes, my mother said I could watch 1. _____ if I have done all my homework that day.

Jenny: What is your favourite programme these days?

Jack: I like Journey to the West. It is 2. _____ to watch.

Jenny: I know! The Monkey King (Sun WuKong) makes quick and funny moves. He is so good at 3. _____ too.

Jack: Yes! He has a long 4. _____ to help 5. _____ fight the bad guys. He always carries 6. _____. He can spin 7. _____. He uses 8. _____ skillfully. But we know the story is not real. It is only a drama on TV.

Jenny: Hey, what is the name of Sun WuKong's home again?

Jack: I'm not sure. Water Cave?

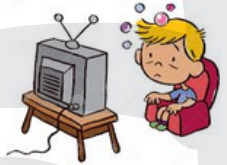

Jenny: Wait... is it something about window?

Jack: It's close. Oh... I think it's called Water Curtain Cave!

Jenny: You are right! I don't know why I remembered 9. _____ wrong.

Jack: That's ok.
(Ding...)

Wow! The recess is over already. Now we both forgot about the 10. _____ ! Haha!

C. Read the passage below. Underline spelling and grammar mistakes and correct them on the right. If you need to add a word to a sentence for it to make sense, use an \wedge to mark the position.

Once upon a time, a hare and a tortoise live in Green

Village. Hare always bragged about how fast he \wedge .

He laughed at how slow Tortoise. Tortoise got tired of his laugh. He thought a race would be a fair way to see who was faster. So he asked to race with him. Hare said OK to the challenge.

The race takes place in the forest. All animals came.

The bird flyed up and announced, "On your mark, get set, go!" The race began. Hare ran it much faster. So he stopped to sleep under a tree. But Tortoise kept.

Slowly but steadily, Tortoise walked and walked. As Hare woke up, he saw crossing the finish line. He couldn't believe. All animals cheered for Tortoise.

Hare was sad. Tortoise saw. So he shook hands with Hare and said, "That's ok. We are still friends." Hare looked at and smiled.

1. lived

2. was

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. _____

10. _____

11. _____

12. _____

13. _____

