

Tenses

A. Eric is talking to Jason. Read their conversation and complete what they say using the correct form of verbs.

Eric: Jason, (1) _____ you _____ (visit) any places in Hong Kong yet?
(2) _____ you ever _____ (be) to Disneyland?

Jason: Not yet. But I'd (3) _____ (love) to go there. I (4) _____ (be) to Ocean Park though. I (5) _____ (go) there last month and (6) _____ (go) there again this Sunday. I really (7) _____ (enjoy) playing the Dragon Ride there.

Eric: (8) _____ you _____ (like) the view from the cable car?

Jason: It (9) _____ (not be) very good since the sky was hazy.

Eric: What a pity! (10) _____ you _____ (try) any Chinese cuisine yet?

Jason: Yes! I (11) _____ (love) yum cha! I wish I could (12) _____ (have) it every morning.

Eric: Have you ever taken any trams on Hong Kong Island then?

Jason: Not yet. Although it is cheap, it is crowded. I (13) _____ (hate) standing on the tram.

Eric: (14) _____ we _____ (take) the ferry and have dim sum tomorrow morning?

Jason: Certainly. I like (15) _____ (look) at the view of Hong Kong.

B. Connie wrote a story about a collector. Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of verbs.

When you walk into Tim's home, you may e.g think (think) you are not welcomed. There (1)_____ (be) numerous "DO NOT DISTURB" signs on the wall of his home. Collecting these signs (2)_____ (be) only his hobby. Tim's collections (3)_____ (be) of different shapes, sizes and colours. He (4)_____ (collect) these signs for three years.

A reporter once (5)_____ (ask) him, "What (6)_____ (cause) you to (7)_____ (start) collecting the "DO NOT DISTURB" signs?"

"It all (8)_____ (begin) in 2009 when I (9)_____ (visit) my friend Lincoln in Germany," Tim said. "I was amazed by his collection of "DO NOT DISTURB" signs. It (10)_____ (be) such an unusual hobby compared to collecting stamps or stickers."

How can Tim (11)_____ (be) able to have such a large collection? His father's work took him to different countries all around the world. Whenever his father (12)_____ (stay) in a hotel, he would (13)_____ (take) the "DO NOT DISTURB" sign. His friends might (14)_____ (give) him some special signs when they travelled overseas.

Tim (15)_____ (enjoy) looking through his collections. He and his sister are thrilled whenever his father (16)_____ (bring) home with new signs.

