

Possessive Adjectives

Language Focus

- We use possessive adjectives to show that something belongs to someone.
e.g. This is my new school bag.
e.g. Your school bag is beautiful.
- There are seven possessive adjectives:

Subject pronoun	Possessive adjectives
I	My
You	Your
We	Our
They	Their
He	His
She	Her
It	Its

A. Some people are seeking help at the Lost and Found Office. They are describing the things they lost. Fill in the correct possessive adjective and circle the correct pictures.

CASE1

Danny: Can I help you?

The Chans: We've lost _____ suitcase.

Danny: How does it look like?

Mr. Chan: It is rectangular in shape. It has a handle.

Danny: Are there any pockets... or stickers on it?

Mrs. Chan: Um...no...uh...there are wheels at the bottom of it...

Danny: Wait a moment...is this _____ suitcase?

The Chans: Yes, this is _____ suitcase!

CASE2

Danny: Can I help you?

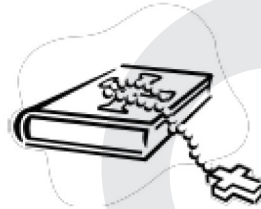

Jane: I've lost _____ book.

Danny: How does it look like?

Jane: It is thick. There is a cross on the cover. Um...there is a bookmark in it.

Danny: Let me see... is this _____ book?

Jane: Yes, this is _____ book. Thanks a lot!

CASE3

Danny: Can I help you?

Adam: My brother has lost _____ jacket.

Danny: How does it look like? Is there a zip?

Adam: No...there are some buttons on it.

Danny: Are there any pockets?

Adam: Um...there are two pockets.

Danny: Here you are. Is this _____ jacket?

Adam: Yes, thanks a lot.

B. Colour the apples with the correct possessive adjective.

1. Uncle Danny has a car.
_____ car is yellow.
2. An elephant has four legs.
_____ legs are strong.
3. I have a radio.
_____ radio is on the desk.
4. You have some storybooks.
_____ storybooks are on the shelf.
5. Dad, mum and I have a house.
_____ house is near the river.
6. The children have some toys.
_____ toys are in the box.
7. Grandpa has a pair of gloves.
_____ gloves are orange.
8. Mr. Chan has a computer.
_____ computer is new.
9. The sharks are swimming in the sea.
_____ teeth are sharp.
10. My sister has a dress.
_____ dress is white.

