

Present Continuous Tense

Language Focus

- We use the present continuous tense to talk about things that are happening now or at the time of speaking.
e.g. Dad: I am looking for Danny. What is he doing now?
Mum: He is sleeping in the bedroom. Don't wake him up.
- To form the present continuous tense, we put 'is', 'am' or 'are' before the '-ing' form of the verb.

What	am	I	doing?	I	am	swimming.
	are	we you they		We You They	are
	is	he she it		He She It	is
